Come experience this unique opportunity to stay in one of Richmond's most treasured downtown historic landmarks. Before becoming a high-end residential building, Miller & Rhoades was one of downtown's classic department stores for over a century. Today, it houses some of the city's most contemporary condominiums, providing all the sophistication, luxury and modern appeal you desire. Conveniently located within walking distance to an array of independent restaurants, art galleries, performance theaters and more, residents are within close proximity of Richmond's vibrant culture. Additionally, professionals who work downtown will also benefit from the easy commute, whether traveling to the Financial District, Biotech and MCV District, VCU or elsewhere.
